Local dancers come together for eclectic performance

The Ink People's 555 Contemporary Dance Company will hold its seventh annual "Free The Beasts Community Dance Extravaganza," a nonprofit performance, Saturday at 7 p.m. in the Eureka High School Auditorium, 1915 J St. in Eureka.

All proceeds from ticket sales are put back into the community to support local arts education programs of Humboldt County's public schools.

"Free The Beasts" showcases dancers from various studios and schools and features myriad styles and skill levels. The performance serves as a platform for choreographers to create works that wouldn't quite fit in any other production, with the line-up consisting of dance artists who have been suppressed or restricted in their work for a variety of reasons, from lack of opportunity to production restrictions.

In 2012, local dancer Stephanie Carter asked Shoshanna Rose of Redwood Raks World Dance Studio for assistance with a production idea. Carter's vision for the production had two main purposes: The first purpose was to offer a performance opportunity for the dancers and choreographers of Humboldt County to showcase the works they would otherwise not be able to perform. As an instructor at local dance studios, Carter was all too familiar with the restrictions applied to assigned choreographic works for specific productions, and held a deep desire to create pieces that didn't fit within those boundaries. She was also well aware of many other dance artists in the area that had no home studio or performance opportunities to release their art.

Thus, the name "Free The Beasts" came about.

The second purpose of the production was to bring the dance community to-together, Carter said. As an open opportunity for everyone, all dancers, studios and schools are invited to participate every year.

"The eclectic dance community of Humboldt is rich and the passion for dance here is permeable," Carter said. "Dance is the purest of art forms and has literally saved lives, mine included. Free The Beasts is a celebration of this incredible community and an opportunity for all Humboldt dancers to come together as a camaraderie, not a competition."

This year's program showcases the works of many returning choreographers — Lela Anotto, Laura Ayllón with Sassafra's Belly Dance Company; Carrie Badeaux with Sundance Ballet Company; Rosie Sharkey, Isadora Sharon, Alexandra Stock, Ya Habibi Dance Company; Susie Kidd, Jane Zinsius, Janice Para-kilas with the Rockin' Rubies; Julie Hayes with Bailando! Dance Company; and Stephanie Carter with 555 Contemporary Dance Company. New choreographers for 2019 include Melody Collver with North Coast Dance; Ginger Greenlee, Rachel Sanders, Ania Vogel and Desert Lilies, Kapua Nolan, Brittney Christensen with The Dance Scene's Scene Team; Tatiana Robinson, Marrison Gilbert, Anne Schomus with Academy of Irish Dance; Sehonna Divine and Kimberly Paulo.

Tickets for the show may be purchased online at brownpapertickets.com, from performers and at the door. Admission is $15 general and $12 for children ages 3 to 12, seniors and students with ID.

'Get on Board' to benefit longtime local musician

ARCATA PLAYHOUSE — CONTRIBUTED

Tim Gray served as the musical director at Dell'Arte for the past 20 years. He was a member of numerous bands, including Lance Romance and The Bayou Swamis.

"Get on Board the Love Train," a musical benefit for Tim Gray, will be held May 3 at 7:30 p.m. at the Arcata Playhouse, 1251 Ninth St. in Arcata. Gray is a local musician, composer and recording engineer. The benefit will raise money for Gray's medical expenses. According to a press release for this show, several years ago he was diagnosed with a rare degenerative brain disorder for which there is no cure. The resulting symptoms of this disorder have restricted his ability to pursue his widely recognized talents as a musician and sound engineer/designer.

Gray served as the musical director at Dell'Arte for the past 20 years. He was a member of numerous bands, including Lance Romance, The Bayou Swamis, Barking Dogma and the Joyce Hough Band. He has engineered the sound recordings of many local musicians including all the performers scheduled for the benefit.

"He has given much to our community and now we want to give some back," said Fred Neighbor, a guitarist and singer, who has been Gray's musical colleague in the Joyce Hough Band and Home Cookin'.

The benefit features a lineup of musicians who have worked with Gray over the years. Lyndsey Battle and Cory Goldman will bring their blend of folk, jazz, and bluegrass. Old Dog, composed of Marty Dodd, Gary Davidson, Tom Pexton and Dave Deason, have been creating original songs for more than 20 years and present a combination of skilled acoustic musicianship and song writing. Jeff Landen is a well-known blues guitarist/singer who has performed with Gray in many bands over the years. Landen has written a song for the night. Home Cookin', whose members are Gray, Neighbor, Joyce Hough, Gary Davidson, and Mike Labolle, will close the night with dance music.

Tickets are $20 at Wildberries Marketplace in Arcata, via arcataplayhouse.org or by calling 707-822-1575. Doors open at 7 p.m. and music begins at 7:30 p.m. For more information, call 707-822-1575 or visit arcataplayhouse.org.

Do not waste the key spot-card

BY PHILLIP ALDER

Lester R. Bittel, in "The Nine Master Keys of Management," wrote, "Good plans shape good decisions. That's why good planning helps to make elusive dreams come true."

Good bridge players work out a plan before diving into the card play. The dream of declarer in this deal isn't elusive — it is nine winners. But getting them would prove elusive for many players.

How should South play in three no-trump after West leads the spade jack?

North's two-club rebid was New Minor Forcing, promising at least game-invitational values and asking partner if he had three-card heart support. When South indicated only a doubleton heart, North jumped to three no-trump.

South could see seven top tricks: three spades, two hearts and two diamonds. The logical line was to try to collect four heart tricks. But how should that suit combination be played?

If the suit was dividing 3-3, everything would work. But playing the king, ace and a third round would risk wasting South's valuable nine. Instead, declarer won the first trick on the board and played a heart to his nine.

Here, South won the trick. Then he unblocked the heart king, played a diamond to the ace, cashed the heart ace and played a fourth heart. East shifted to the club seven, but declarer covered with his 10 and could not be stopped from taking three spades, four hearts and two diamonds.

This line of play in hearts had an a priori 61 percent chance of success, winning if hearts were 3-3, or if East had an honor-doubleton or queen-jack-fourth, or if West held queen-jack-doubleton.
